

Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to show a politically motivated program on national television is wrong. Please stop them. It is unfair to grant one company so much power over something as important as a presidential election. Thank you.